Result of joint venture Airolux

In 2010 IPS established together with the Resilux Group the joint venture Air0-Lux AG in Bilten Switzerland. As budgeted the joint venture has incurred start-up losses during the first year of business in which the production facility was ramped up to support the delivery of Airopack to the launching customers in 2011. The pro rata part of those losses attributable to IPS in the first half year 2011 amounts to EUR 0.4 million and is incorporated in the consolidated results of IPS.

IPS will report its 2011 half year results on 30 September 2011.

I.P.S. Innovative Packaging Solutions AG is a Swiss holding company. The shares are listed on the Domestic Standard of SIX Swiss Exchange. (Ticker: IPS; ISIN: CH 0002013826).

IPS is a leading innovator and active investor in primary packaging with strong knowledge and specialized in dispensing technologies. Today, the developed and patented Air0Pack-technology represents the most important asset of the group. Air0Pack represents an innovative technology to bottle a substance (liquid, gel, foam, etc.) in plastic instead of the usual tinplate or aluminum cans, and to dispense the substance with a constant pressure using a unique pressure control system, which operates with air pressure instead of propellants.
